Madeira Hall of Fame Inducts Five New Members

The Madeira High School (MHS) Athletic Hall of Fame inducted five new MHS alumni in its 2022 class, making a total of 170 Hall of Fame members.

The Madeira High School Athletic Hall of Fame was created in 1991 to honor former athletes, coaches, and past or present contributors to the athletic program. Inductees are selected by a committee based solely on accomplishments while at Madeira High School.

The December 2 ceremonies featured a catered banquet in the MHS cafeteria. Following dinner emcee Jim Gulick introduced each member who spoke about their time spent at. The inductees were then introduced in the MHS gymnasium at half time of the Madeira varsity basketball game.

The five new members received a plaque with their picture and accomplishments, a lifetime pass to all Madeira High School events, and a commemorative brick to be placed in the Hall of Fame Plaza at MHS. 2022 inductees include Shawn Burroughs MHS '02, Robb Hern, MHS '02, Javier Ibarra MHS '05, Caitlyn McCullough MHS '12, and Rob Tudor MHS '09.

The Hall of Fame Committee consists of John Cravaack, Jeanne Gulick, Todd Hicks, Dave Schlensker, Pam Mack Scott, Cyndi Underwood and Jon Unger. For more information please see www.madeiracityschools.org/Athletics.
