MADEIRA HIGH SCHOOL'S EMERGING ARTISTS

Madeira High School Junior Molly Donohue, and Seniors Eliese Bird, Verona Schaffner, Zeinebou Semane, and Isabel Powis have had artwork accepted in the Ohio Art Education Association's annual Emerging Artist Exhibition.

The event was created to recognize and encourage budding artistic talent in Ohio high schools, and motivate and inspire new artists. It provides a way for young artists to experience competition in the areas of drawing, painting, sculpture, crafts, computer art, photography and printing before applying for colleges and pursuing future art careers.

The exhibition is sponsored by the Ohio Art Education Association – a professional organization for teachers that promotes art education and recognizes quality student art through various exhibits at both the state and regional levels.

To celebrate the teachers and students there will be a reception on October 19 from 2 – 3 PM at the State Teachers Retirement Systems (STRS) building, 275 East Broad Street, in Columbus, Ohio. Artwork will be displayed there from September 9 through October 19.

Jill Dulgeroff is the Madeira High School art teacher. She nominated the students' works during the 2018-2019 school year.
