Madeira Schools Foundation's Distinguished Award Recipients

The Madeira Schools Foundation (MSF) established its Distinguished Awards program to honor and recognize alumni, citizens and staff members who have made significant contributions to society, become respectable leaders, and been recognized as positive role models. This year's recipients were recognized at the Foundation's annual luncheon on May 13.

MSF Distinguished Awards were presented to Bo & Tina Gutierrez (Friend of the Foundation Award), Lydia Seiter '15 (Distinguished Alumni/Citizen Award), and Jennifer Bracken (Distinguished Staff Award). In addition to being honored at the luncheon, an engraved nameplate for each honoree is permanently affixed to the Distinguished Award Plaque in the main hallway at Madeira High School. An engraved commemorative paving brick is placed in the "Walk of Fame" entrance to Romano Court.

The Madeira Schools Foundation also donates upwards of $25,000 annually to graduating seniors and alumni to pursue their college education. This year's MSF scholarship recipients were also honored at the May 13 luncheon; Maggie Sampson (Andrea Dennis Scholar), Evan Dickess (Patrick Wood Scholar), Malina Moore (Nina Bechtel Knox Scholar and John D. Rahe Scholar), James Carpenter (Steve Kramer Scholarship), Alexandra Born (John D. Rahe Scholar), Nathaniel Born (John D. Rahe Scholar), Courtney Culp (John D. Rahe Scholar), Gabrielle Hugentobler (John D. Rahe Scholar), Jack Neiberding (Matthew Simpson Art Scholar), Carly Scott (Adrick Family Scholar), Mattie Waltz (Entrepreneur of the Year), Isabella Gutierrez (Santoro Entrepreneurship Scholarship), and Max Keller (Vinnie Englert Award).
