MADEIRA NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTS NEW MEMBERS

Madeira High School (MHS) recently held its annual induction for the new members of the MHS Olive M. Gregory Chapter of the National Honor Society. The juniors and seniors pledged to create enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate a desire to render service, promote leadership, and develop character in the students of the district's secondary schools.

Founded in 1921, the National Honor Society (NHS) is the nation's premier organization established to recognize high school students who have demonstrated excellence in the organization's four pillars; Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character. Madeira's members must attend monthly meetings, pay dues, and attend one or more chapter service projects a year. They are also required to complete 10 hours of community service a year, in addition to the 40 hours total required by the district for graduation. Madeira's National Honor Society has adopted families for the holidays using proceeds from their annual Father Daughter Dance, sponsored the school's Winter Homecoming dance with the net proceeds benefitting worthy causes, and cleaned up the Tess Blackwelder Butterfly Garden located at Madeira Elementary School.

Members vote annually on an Honorary Faculty Member that they feel also exhibits the four pillars of the National Honor Society. This year the students selected MHS teacher Bob Kitchen, who was inducted with the new student members.

Senior inductees are: Sophia Davenport, Sam Eppert, Gabi Hugentobler, Alex Krikorian, Meredith Lewis, Paul (Tommy) Saba, Brooke Schomaeker, Jake Schomaeker, and Nikki Turnbull.
