Madeira High School Students Pledge to Learn, Serve and Lead

Madeira High School (MHS) held an induction ceremony October 7 for the new members of the school's Olive M. Gregory Chapter of the National Honor Society. The new eleventh and twelfth grade members pledged to be committed learners, encourage service, promote leadership, and develop character in the school district's younger students.

National Honor Society (NHS) recognizes high school students who have demonstrated excellence in Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character. Members must attend monthly meetings, pay dues, and attend one or more chapter service projects a year. They are also required to complete 10 hours of community service a year, in addition to the 40 hours total required by the district for graduation. They have adopted families for the holidays using proceeds from their annual Father Daughter Dance, cleaned up and maintained the elementary school's Tess Blackwelder Butterfly Garden, and sponsored the school's Winter Homecoming dance. Last year net proceeds from the Homecoming dance went to Mela-Know-More in honor of a Madeira staff member's father.

Members vote annually on an Honorary Faculty Member that they feel also exhibits the four pillars of the NHS. This year the students selected MHS teacher Suzy Tucker, who was inducted with the new student members.

Officers for the 2018-2019 school year are President: Isabel Evans, Vice President: Cameron Finke, Secretary: Gabe Valento, Service Chair: Gray Palmer, and Event Chair: Jonathan Castellanos.
