Our 2021 Scholastic Art and Writing Award Recipients

Seven Madeira Middle School (MMS) students and seven Madeira High School (MHS) student have received recognition for a combined 20 pieces of art they submitted to the National Scholastic Art Competition.

The Scholastic Art Competition is the nation's longest running program for creative students in Grades 7-12. Each year nearly 5,000 pieces of area students' art work are submitted for judging with only about 20% of those submissions accepted. Entries that show originality, skill, and the emergence of a personal vision then have the opportunity to be selected for Gold Key, Silver Key, or Honorable Mention recognition. Gold Key recipients continue in the competition for national medals in March.

MMS students receiving recognition are Olivia Bodley: Silver Key (Drawing & Illustration), and Honorable Mention (Photography); Chanel Chen: Honorable Mention (Photography); Natalie Cimpello: Silver Key (Drawing & Illustration); Katie Dickess: Honorable Mention (Drawing & Illustration); Ava Henry: Silver Key (Drawing & Illustration); Addie Rockwell: Honorable Mention (Drawing & Illustration); and Leo Vahue: Honorable Mention (Drawing & Illustration).

MHS students receiving recognition are Ethan Bisselberg: Silver Key in Mixed Media, Silver Key (Drawing & Illustration); Molly Donohue: Honorable Mention (Mixed Media) and Silver Key (Photography); Nicholas Heath: Honorable Mention (Digital Art); Molly Hurley: Gold Key (Drawing & Illustration) and Gold Key (Drawing & Illustration); Hannah Lutes: Honorable Mention (Mixed Media); Ali Murphy: Gold Key (Mixed Media); Jack Nieberding: Honorable Mention (Digital Art), Silver Key (Photography), and Honorable Mention (Mixed Media).

The Madeira Middle School art teacher is Liz Rossi-Riel and the Madeira High School art teacher is Jill Dulgerhoff.
