SENIORS SHARING WITH SENIORS

A group of Madeira residents gathered at Madeira High School (MHS) September 19 for bagels, coffee, and a conversation about what's going on in their school district.

Madeira Superintendent's Senior Citizen Community Coffees are held each fall and spring to give friends and residents a chance to catch up with what's going on in the district. Superintendent Kenji Matsudo talked to the group about upcoming events, then turned the program over to two people who know firsthand what's happening in Madeira Schools – seniors Ky'ree McCray-Brown and Grace Rindels. The students talked to the senior citizens about their classes, activities, experiences, future hopes, and what being a Madeira student means.

"It's great to see and talk with some of the Madeira residents that laid the strong foundation our schools are built on." Mr. Matsudo stated. "It's important for us to keep in touch with this group. These coffees are an informal way to share the good news that happens in our schools."

Among the attendees were former Madeira staff members, parents and grandparents of Madeira students, and community members – some who attended Madeira Schools themselves.

Any Madeira senior citizens who would like to be added to the mailing list for future coffees or other district senior citizen events are asked to contact Diane Nichols at dnichols@madeiracityschools.org or 924-3707.

Superintendent Kenji Matsudo listens as MHS seniors Ky'ree McCray-Brown and Grace Rindels speak to coffee attendees (l to r): Janet Donaldson, Helen Blankenship, Judy Rosene, Dick Rosene, Dan Henke, Jim Decatur, and Dottie Borcharding.
